

Purchase of a freehold residential property

Our fees cover all of the work required to complete the purchase of your new home, including dealing with registration at the Land Registry and dealing with the payment of Stamp Duty Land Tax (Stamp Duty) if the property is in England, or Land Transaction Tax (Land Tax) if the property you wish to buy is in Wales.

Fees vary from property to property and can on occasion be significantly more than the ranges set out below. We will give you an accurate figure once we have sight of your specific documents.

The fees generally consist of:

Our usual conveyancing fees and disbursements

- Legal fee ranging from £495 + VAT (where the purchase price of the property is up to £150,000) up to £900 + VAT (for a property valued at £1,000,000). We provide a price on application where the property is priced above £1,000,000.
- Acting in relation to a mortgage: Redemption £40 + VAT
New mortgage £100 + VAT

In addition to the legal fee, you will also have additional costs to pay, known as “disbursements”. These are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties. Typically, they include, but are not limited to:

- Fees for various types of searches
- HM Land Registry fee
- Banking fees

We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process.

Stamp Duty or Land Tax (on purchase)

This depends on the purchase price of your property. You can calculate the amount you will need to pay by using HMRC’s website or if the property is located in Wales by using the Welsh Revenue Authority’s website. We charge £40 + VAT for preparing the SDLT form

Example

Because there are so many variables it is difficult to summarise the range of total costs here with any accuracy. Instead, we have provided, by way of an illustration, an estimate of what fees and costs would apply in the case of a typical purchase of a property worth £200,000 with the help of a mortgage:

How long will my house purchase take?

How long it will take from your offer being accepted until you can move in will depend upon a number of factors. The average process takes between 6-10 weeks.

It can be quicker or slower, depending upon the parties in the chain. For example, if you are a first-time buyer, purchasing a new build property with a mortgage in principle, it could take 3 months. However, if you are buying a leasehold property that requires an extension of the lease, this can take significantly longer, up to 6 months. In such a situation additional charges would apply.

Stages of the process

The precise stages involved in the purchase of a residential property vary according to the circumstances. However, routinely we will carry out the following

- Take your instructions and give you initial advice
- Check finances are in place to fund purchase and contact lender's solicitors if needed
- Receive and advise on contract documents
- Carry out searches
- Obtain further planning documentation if required
- Make any necessary enquiries of seller's solicitor
- Give you advice on all documents and information received
- Go through conditions of mortgage offer with you

- Exchange contracts and notify you that this has happened

- c. all parties to the transaction are co-operative and there is no unreasonable delay from third parties providing documentation.
